Gracie Mansion

We'll enjoy tea (Enjoy tea service in Gracie Mansion's Ballroom – featuring a generous selection of home-made finger sandwiches and home-baked scones and tea cakes.) in the grand ballroom of Gracie Mansion and then take a guided tour of the Federal style 1799 building. The mansion, in Carl Schurz Park overlooking the East River, has housed New York mayors since Fiorello La Guardia.

The High Line

In the morning, we'll take a short walk on the High Line, the new elevated park that affords surprising and spectacular views of the city. The mile and a half long park was built on a section of an elevated New York Central Railroad spur. We'll also have time to shop at Chelsea Market which offers dozens of bakeries and food shops.
