

presents the Parent Education Speaker Series

INTERNET SAFETY – KEEPING YOUR CHILDREN SAFE ONLINE

Wednesday, March 30 from 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Cresskill MS/HS Media Center, One Lincoln Drive, Cresskill, NJ 07626

“Many teens are unconcerned about the dangers of sharing personal information online.”

Cox Communications & National Center for Missing & Exploited Children Study

Sergeant John Cleary – Bergen County Prosecutor’s Office, Computer Crimes Task Force

- Understand potentially threatening and dangerous situations arising from internet usage, including chat rooms, instant messages, e-mail and blogs
- Address common challenges parents face protecting their child’s privacy online
- Discuss online predators, cyber bullying and sexting
- Learn how to recognize if your child might be at risk on-line

This presentation contains objectionable material and children should not attend.

This event is open to surrounding communities and school districts.

For more information, contact the Cresskill MS/HS HSA at cmschs.hsa@gmail.com